One possible version:

Li Ming is a member of my team called Rainbow. Generally speaking, he is a warm-hearted and outgoing boy. He is always ready to help others without asking for anything in return. He can also get on well with teachers and classmates. In his spare time, he likes reading books on history, so he knows a lot of knowledge about history.

But as a famous saying goes, "Every coin has two sides", sometimes he doesn't work hard enough on his lessons. I advise him to spend more time on the subjects from now on. What's more, he'd better answer questions in class actively so that he can make great progress.

I'm sure if he can try harder to improve himself, he'll be an excellent student soon.
